Cats crash apk mod

CATS: Crash Arena Turbo Stars - this is a great app where we have to participate in exciting battles of fun cars with lots of cute cats. In this toy, we will not meet with high-tech combat mechanisms. The role of fantastic robots, and then replaces primitive wooden machines. However, the tension does not change much. The first thing you need to choose a vehicle type: weasel, boat, stone, etc. Then install on our battle monster wheels and engage in weapons. This can be a powerful circular saw, effectively dismembering enemy equipment into pieces or a deadly rocket, fast charges that cause tremendous damage when hit by a target. Battles are held automatically, the gamer can only watch the actions of his district. The palm is awarded to the participant whose device has the highest health reserve and causes maximum damage to the opponent. You can also hang the mechanized armor and try to suppress the enemy under pressure. As a result, we have fascinating media entertainment, with two modes and several hundred different options for creating our own transport. Excellent graphics and sound, for a long time immersing the user in the world of uncompromising battles. ZeptoLab may no longer be a stranger to looking at those who love the game Cut the Rope. Since the first edition, this simple puzzle style game has attracted millions of downloads, which has brought great sales of ZeptoLab and highlighting the company's image in the entertainment gaming market. Not unexpectedly, this game was also very impressed with the person he had experienced. Be the next player to join cats' journey: Crash Arena Turbo Stars. Cats Story: Crash Arena Turbo stars are set in cats planet, planet of aggressive cats. They are all engineers who are talented in technology, but the volume of work here is so small that they can show their talents. So they fight each other to get a good job. Military machines are created and the strongest can survive. If you are a cat on this planet, will your mechanical engineering skills help you find a job here, or become unemployed? How to play CATS: Crash Arena Turbo stars a game-making machine where players of his role in engineer design and create the most powerful devices. Your mission in this game is to defeat all enemies to become the most powerful CATS planet. Before you start each battle, you have two stages. Stage 1: Assembling the fighting machine, this is the most important stage as a result of the battle depends on your army. Each machine consists of a body, a wheel, a weapon and an auxiliary weapon. First of all, choose the body to make the installation of other parts. Then select the right type of wheel your device. There are two types of cake: front wheel and rear wheel. With a variety of wheels in a garage, you can customize your car to if your car is defeated, then you have given your opponent a chance to win. Finally, the weapon, you can choose saw blades, drillbits, or even missiles to attack the enemy. Each part of the car has a certain damage value and a certain amount of HP that will appear when you double-click it. And in general, it will make your machine. However, by the number of bonuses you receive during the experience, you can also upgrade any part of the car to increase HP and attack statistics. This factor is essential because the opponents you encounter will be strong. In phase 2, you only need to select the Championship function to select the opponent to play. And when the game starts, your mission is over. The machines will automatically deteriorate and destroy each other, and you can not interfere in this battle. At this point, you're just sitting there waiting for results, aren't you? CAT's conclusion: Turbo stars crash arena style game, but ownership tactical gameplay incredibly fun. You will become an experienced engineer carrying the task of creating a war machine to destroy all enemies. Although the plot is a little more aggressive, the experience the game brings is exciting. Since the game is released for free, you can download it right here. CATS: The Crash Arena Turbo Stars app created for fans of one-on-one battles.
